

GALATIANS 3:15-29

What Jesus did through his death and resurrection was not only a work of justification, but of unification. Sometimes as we journey with Jesus we find ourselves focusing on what makes us different rather than what it means to be a part of a healthy family. In this section of Galatians Paul makes an appeal to the church to lay their differences aside and see themselves as single, unified family.

Galatians 3:15-29, Genesis 3:14-15, Isaiah 64:6a, Isaiah 61:10, Colossians 3

Disagreement doesn't have to lead to division _____

Judaizers were trying to add _____ to God's grace and take _____ away _____ from his promise

The law didn't contradict the promise – it cooperated _____ with the promise.

The problem was never the law, it was the worship _____ of the law.

The law had two primary functions:

- The law showed people their _____ sin _____
- The law prepared the way for Jesus _____

The law didn't give life, it regulated _____

The law was to prepare Israel for the “way _____ of faith _____”

Both men and women become “adult _____ sons _____” in God's family

God's family does not have hierarchies _____ of people

As members of God's family we are ALL heirs _____ of his promise