CHURCH ON MONDAY: IN CHRIST

We are the Church on Monday. We are God’s incarnational presence placed strategically within culture to come alongside people who are far from God and ask the Jesus Question: What can I do for you? To be able to do this with confidence, we must first discover who we are in Christ.

Ephesians 1:1, Romans 5:19, Matthew 5:17, 1 Corinthians 5:21, Ezekiel 36:26-27

The church is not just people experiencing Jesus; the church is people expressing Jesus.

We don’t have a product to push, we have a person to reveal.

Paul, and apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, to the saints in Ephesus, the faithful IN CHRIST JESUS. (Ephesians 1:1)

What does it mean to be “in Christ”?

- Justified in Christ – Romans 3:24
- Sanctified in Christ – 1 Corinthians 1:2
- Vindicated in Christ – 2 Corinthians 12:19
- Free in Christ – Galatians 2:4
- Confident in Christ – Philippians 1:26
- Complete in Christ – Colossians 29:9-10
- Gracious in Christ – Philemon 15-16
- Hopeful in Christ – 1 Thessalonians 1:3
- Strong and Faithful in Christ – 1 Timothy 1:18-19
- Triumphant in Christ – 2 Corinthians 2:14

God has called us into a covenant relationship:

A covenant has two parties and each party has a responsibility.

God’s responsibility was to define his law for us and to fulfill promises when we kept them.

Our responsibility was simply to obey.

Believing in Jesus means trusting that what he did right, he did for us.

Being “in Christ” means we have entered into to the reality of this Christ event. It means that Jesus has fulfilled the righteous requirements of God’s law for us, and that now we receive all of the covenant blessings God has promised.
